YESTERDAY'S SCHOOL KIDS OF ISABELLA COUNTY:
A History of the County's One-Room Schools
by Jack R. Westbrook and Sherry Sponseller

This fascinating 240 page book will transport you to a place fondly remembered by a dwindling few. Meet the kids who would later be known as "the greatest generation" as toddlers, teens and "tweens" in this in-depth look at the more than 115 one-room schools of Isabella County's by-gone days. From hundreds of handwritten records, the authors have transcribed thousands of student and teacher names to introduce those who peopled the picturesque one-room multi-grade places of learning dotting the countryside before electricity, electronics and automobiles. Inside you'll see over 200 photographs of schools and kids as they were then and, if a structure is on the site, the schoolplace as it looks today. Come inside ... yesterday's school bells are calling.
